

Eikev (Deuteronomy 7:12–11:25)

Hertz: p. 780; Etz Hayim: p. 1037; Stone: p. 980

Haftarah (Isaiah 49:14–51:3)

Summary

Second discourse continued:

1. The rewards of obedience.
2. The lessons of past history.

Warning against arrogance and self-righteousness:

3. Golden calf and smashing and replacing of the tablets.

4. Choosing of the Levites.

5. Preconditions for conquering and keeping the Promised Land:

Love and serve G-d and follow all His commandments.

Hertz: p. 784; Etz Hayim: p. 1042; Stone: p. 984

Maftir: Hertz: p. 793; Etz Hayim: p. 1053; Stone: p. 996

Haftarah: summary

This is the second of the seven haftarat of consolation. Isaiah reassures the people, in exile in Babylon, that the ancient covenant will always be binding, even in exile, and the faith of the righteous remnant of the people will be rewarded.

Hertz: p. 794; Etz Hayim: p. 1056; Stone: p. 1197

This Week

Sunday, August 1st, Purim Masquerade Ball Committee Meeting, 10:30 am. Come to the first planning committee meeting for the Purim Masquerade Ball and 30th Anniversary Celebration (scheduled on March 12, 2011 at Ft. Belvoir Officer's Club), at the synagogue. We're looking for your bright ideas (and some muscle power) to make this a special event and raise some funds too. How about a costume contest? Purim Shpiel? Raffles? Food and Drink? Advertising book? Dancing? Decorations? Get in on the fun early and join the Ball Committee. Contact Dannie Halle at pastpresident@adatreyim.org for more information.

Monday, August 2nd, Summer Hebrew Ulpan, 6:30-8:00 pm. This summer we will be offering inexpensive Hebrew classes at Adat Reyim.
